NETTELHORST SCHOOL FRENCH MARKET

Nettelhorst school is located in the heart of the Lakeview East neighborhood of Chicago. It is often cited in the media as an example of innovation and renewal in urban public schools (we have been featured on CBS, PBS, NPR, 60 Minutes, the New York Times as well as Chicago papers). Our innovation goes beyond academic changes - for example, Nettelhorst piloted the CPS Healthy Eating Program, which brought a salad bar to the school. Nettelhorst has also become a centerpiece for the community. The Nettlehorst French Market is a Saturday 'town square' with stalls featuring fresh farm produce, flowers, gourmet foods, crafts and goods. The Lakeview Chamber of Commerce co-hosts the neighborhood Halloween Hoopla. A weekly story time is run in our library, is open to the public and a treat for pre-k students each week
